

The image shows a top-down view of a massage table with blue upholstery. Two different footrest configurations are being compared. The top configuration, labeled 'Chaise Footrest', shows the footrest extended forward, creating a continuous surface with the table. The bottom configuration, labeled 'Standard Footrest', shows the footrest folded up, revealing the mechanical linkage and adjustment components underneath. The labels are centered between the two setups.

Chaise Footrest

Standard Footrest